

Privacy Notice

MSTAT processes the information submitted through this form, such as full name, email address, company/organization, job title and survey responses, for the purpose of evaluating our cooperation, improving our services, technology and customer experience, and producing aggregated or statistical insights.

Participation in the survey is voluntary. The legal basis for the processing is MSTAT's legitimate interest in improving its services and managing its relationship with its partners. Your responses will be used only for the above purposes and will not be published in an identifiable form without your prior specific approval.

Please do not include in free-text fields any personal data relating to third parties or confidential information that is not necessary for the purpose of the survey.

If you indicate that you would like us to contact you regarding a follow-up interview, success story, case study, or testimonial, your contact details will be used solely for that purpose. Any publication of your statement, name, job title, company, logo or other content will take place only after your prior specific approval of the final material.

Survey data will be retained for as long as necessary to assess the responses and improve our services and will then be deleted or anonymised in accordance with MSTAT's data retention policy. For more information on how MSTAT processes personal data and on your rights, please refer to MSTAT's Privacy Policy or contact MSTAT through the contact details set out therein.
